MOUNTAIN AND HIKING BOOTS

Hiking is experiencing a resurgence in popularity and nowadays people of all ages are enjoying it. While older hikers value physical exercise and fitness; younger people are increasingly looking for inner balance, stress relief and genuine nature experiences. Whether mountains, hills or themed routes that combine hiking with cultural, culinary or nature education – the variety of opportunities is greater than ever.

For more than 300 years, and now in the 9th generation, we have focussed on family tradition and high quality, combined with innovation. We are proud to still be a family business today and be able to pass on our values, experience and sustainability ideas to the next generation.

“Live with nature – experience it and treat it with respect”

– Alfons Meindl

PERFECT LEGENDARY

TRADITION, THAT YOU CAN FEEL.

Craftsmanship is passion. This is why shoes are more than just companions. For over 300 years, we at Meindl have been enhancing shoemaking craftsmanship - in every seam, in every detail. Once completed a shoe has gone through more than 200 steps and passed through 240 pairs of hands. This makes each shoe unique - a masterpiece of traditional manufacturing that embodies quality, durability and function. To ensure that we continue into the future, our apprentices still learn to sew by hand. This is because true quality is not produced on an assembly line but with instinct. We combine experience with modern technology and remain shoemaking craftsmen. Meindl stands for craftsmanship - step by step.
